

10 of the World's Most Respected Autism Speakers

14 Lectures - Complete Presentations

with actual lectures, diagrams, charts and illustrations that simplify complex strategies and make them understandable

Introducing a revolutionary new way to learn about autism spectrum differences staying on top of the biggest issues such as behavior, communication, social skills, sensory conditions from the top leaders in the autism field...

14 Hours - Complete Presentations

with actual lectures, diagrams, charts and illustrations that simplify complex strategies and make them understandable

All on a CD Shipped to You

✓ Presentations available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.
Learn strategies anytime, anywhere, anyplace.

✓ You don't have to travel to view expert presentations!
Saves you the cost of traveling & accommodations to conferences.

✓ Very reasonably priced to save you money!
Substantially more affordable than paying for a single conference registration!

✓ You have the ability to Stop, Pause, Fast-forward & Rewind.

You can take a break,

10 of the World's Most Respected Autism Speakers 14 Lectures - Complete Presentations

with actual lectures, diagrams, charts and illustrations that simplify complex strategies and make them understandable.

Bridges to Adulthood for Learners with ASD - Peter F. Gearhardt, Ed.D discusses transition programming for adolescents and adults with ASD and provides the information needed to develop a personalized transition plan.

Early Intervention For The Autistic Child – Dr. Hanna Alonim explains that paying attention to the autistic child's innate abilities provides the cornerstone for therapy.

Effective Counselling of Persons with HFA & AS - Nathan Ory, M.A. discusses how to self manage anxious thinking and explains how to avoid some of the typical traps of literal thinking, overgeneralizati...

Life On And Slightly To The Right Of The Autism Spectrum - Stephen M. Shore, an individual with autism, focuses on how the environment is perceived by those with ASD and on practical...

Making Friends - Dr. Tony Attwood explains how to encourage friendship skills in children and adolescents with Asperger's syndrome and High-Functioning Autism.

Managing Feelings - Dr. Tony Attwood explains a new education and therapy program for individuals with autism to help manage emotions.

Metallothionein Deficiency In Autism - William J. Walsh, PhD talks about metallothionein deficiency, how it effects individuals with ASD, and how to combat it using special techniques.

Son-Rise Program - Raun K. Kaufman, who was diagnosed at 18 months with autism, focuses on specific strategies that will have an immediate impact on children challenged by ASDs.

Supporting Children and Adults with Persistent, Repetitive Behavior - Nathan E. Ory, M.A. discusses evaluation of repetitive behavior and how to use structure to assist in transitions.

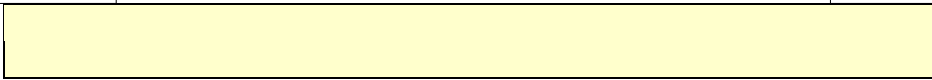

The Picture Exchange Communication System - Andy Bondy Ph.D describes the unique augmentative communication system he co-developed for those find it difficult to use speech as a primary mode of communication.

Thimerosal (Mercury) & Neurodevelopmental Disorders - Dr. Mark Geier presents... An overview of the latest population epidemiology, clinical, molecular, and animal model evidence will be reviewed showing a dire...

Thimerosal and Aspartame as cofactors in the Autism Epidemic -

Exceptional Resources
222 Harvard Ave, Seattle WA 98122

Your privacy is respected

301 Wye Rd, Suite 11
Box 64260
Sherwood Park, AB
T8B 0A5
CA